

A word cloud of Portuguese family-related terms. The words are arranged in a dense, overlapping manner. The largest word is 'pai' (father) in purple. Other large words include 'casar' (to marry) in orange, 'familiar' in blue, 'coisa' (thing) in red, 'dia' (day) in yellow, 'mae' (mother) in blue, 'filho' (son) in red, 'irmao' (brother) in blue, 'irma' (sister) in green, 'dinheiro' (money) in blue, 'empregar' (to employ) in blue, 'caro' (expensive) in blue, 'vezar' (to take turns) in green, 'centao' (hundred) in blue, 'pessoa' (person) in orange, 'ano' (year) in purple, 'causar' (to cause) in red, 'vidar' (to live) in green, and 'filhar' (to have children) in green.

causar
filhar
vidar
coisa
dia
mae
irmao
irma
familiar
dinheiro
empregar
caro
centao
vezar
pessoa
ano
pai
casar
filho
trabalhar